To whom it may concern

Dear Sir / Madam / Mr. / Ms.

AUTHORISED DISTRIBUTOR AND BUILD PARTNERSHIP – ATHENIUM (PTY) LTD

Gilbarco Veeder-Root is a global industrial technology company focused on providing end-to-end solutions to the fuel and convenience store industry. As part of our strategy fulfilment to deliver industry leading flexible and scalable retail solutions, Gilbarco Veeder-Root partners with organisations that promotes our values and extends our impact through industry expertise, to deliver and maintain our innovations to the highest quality and service levels.

In addition to being an authorised supply, implement and support representative of our software and hardware products, Athenium (Pty) Ltd and Gilbarco Veeder-Root's product development teams jointly develop and maintain standard middleware products that can be contracted to support throughout our retail automation and point of sale product life cycles where integration to ERPs are required to deliver an end-to-end solution.

Pursuant to this agreement, Athenium regularly participates in training to offer advanced level configuration, customisation and ongoing support to the retail fuels industry using their own resources and staff.

Athenium is an independent service and build contractor and such are not employees or legal representatives of Gilbarco Veeder-Root and affiliates. This letter does not affect or extend any established relationships and/or contractual obligations between Athenium, Gilbarco Veeder-Root and/or affiliates.

I remain at your disposal for any subsequent discussions.
